

Advertising and Marketing Agencies

Business Solutions

Today's advertising and marketing agencies are feeling the pressure of a tight economy, not only in their own companies, but in the companies they represent: their valued clients. To keep their businesses thriving, agencies must rely on a top-quality partner who can not only print great pieces, but is easy to work with, is competitively priced, and flexible with billing terms. Join forces with Lithtex to create a true partnership that lets your agency enhance profitability and productivity despite challenging business conditions and shrinking resources.

Spend Less Time Managing Projects and Relationships

The best printer is a trusted partner invested in your success – one that doesn't require constant supervision. Lithtex makes your agency stronger by:

- Delivering your projects on-time and on-budget.
- Leveraging our extensive expertise to make proactive recommendations without ever compromising your design.
- Providing complete, full-service capabilities under one roof.

Always Know You Will Be Proud of the Product

When your clients buy printing, the work has your name on it. When you partner with Lithtex, rest easy knowing you'll always be proud of the printed product. Lithtex will:

- Produce your work with the care of a partner invested in your success.
- Utilize our unmatched printing experience and reputation for craftsmanship.
- Use our versatile capabilities to handle any printing-related need.
- Use the latest high-end equipment to produce excellent color and quality.
